Gratitude is the health of the soul. —— Nietzsche

QUALITY AND INGENUITY EMPOLO IS LIKE WATER

If you are grateful for life, life will give you brilliant sunshine. The founder of EMPOLO Sanitary Ware always has an extraordinary understanding about happiness.

Happiness is to have a grateful heart, a healthy body, a satisfying job and your loved ones.

In 2003, the status quo of the bathroom industry, the founder saw that the sanitary ware market was full of many products of inferior quality. He hoped to make good products for this market and creat a brand which represents high-quality products, challenge himself, repay the society to let people afford good-quality and pratical bathroom products, quality and practical. In the early stage, the founder was doing his best to start this business with his grateful heart, share his gratitude with people and put it into action to produce more good products which could lead this industry.

In 2008, the restruction of the industry led to the elimination of the fittest, which made the founder re-ponder about the industry. Let him think more deeply. He occupied the market with hardware faucets, flower sprinklers and bathroom cabinets as single products, and gradually responded to the market demand for one-stop customization, enriched his product line, increased bathtubs, toilets and other integral bathroom matching. More steady development.

EMPOLO always adhering to the value of ethics, strict quality, optimum material quality, injected into the simple art aesthetics, to create a simple, comfortable, environmentally friendly and healthy quality of life space for global consumers. EMPOLO is getting better and better along with the right direction!
